DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1, 5-23, 44, 45, and 33-40 are drawn to the protein having the amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 1.

Group II, claim(s) 2, 3, 5-23, 44, 45, 33 -40, drawn to the protein having the amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 3.

Group III, claim(s) 4, 5-23, 44, 45, 33-40, drawn to the protein having the amino acid sequence which differs from the sequence of SEQ ID NO: 3.

Group IV, claim(s) 24, 26, drawn to a polynucleotide which encodes a protein as in groups I-III.

Group V, claim(s) 25, drawn to a polynucleotide which comprises the coding sequence of SEQ ID NO: 2.

Group VI, claim(s) 41, 43-45, drawn to drawn to the protein having the amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 5.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The groups I-VI do not share a special technical feature since they differ in both structure and function. The DNA (polynucleotide) encoding the protein does not share the special technical feature with the protein it encodes because it differs both in structure and function from the protein. The proteins differ from each other because of the same reasons. The DNA (polynucleotides) differ from one another for the same reasons.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

The many different polynucleotides that encode the proteins in groups IV.

Applicant is required to elect one of the polynucleotides which encode the proteins of groups I-III, i.e. pick a protein sequence No. to be encoded.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 24 and 26 claim species of a polynucleotide which encodes proteins of groups I-III.

The following claim(s) are generic: 24.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the species as claimed do not share a special technical feature since they differ in both structure and function from one another.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Concerning applicant's request for an interview, applicant's attention is directed to MPEP 408.
